Diversity is our strength and not our weakness, it enhances the development and prosperity of our country. However, over the period of time our diversity

OBJECTIVE: Shaheed Diwas or Martyr's Day is celebrated in India on a lot of occasions to commemorate the sacrifices of the freedom fighters of the country who sacrificed their lives for the independence of the nation.

In March, Shaheed Diwas is observed on March 23 to commemorate the fateful day when three freedom fighters - Bhagat Singh, Shivaram Rajguru, and Sukhdev Thapar – were hanged by the British Government. As we gear up to observe Shaheed Diwas, here are a few things to keep in mind.

World Book Day (also known as World Book and Copyright Day, or International Day of the Book) is an annual event organized by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) on 23rd April to promote reading, publishing, and copyright. Like the previous years, Nabagram Amar Chand Kundu College, this year also took the initiative to celebrate the day to recognize the scope of books as to link between the past and the future and to bridge between generations and across cultures.

BACKGROUND AND OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAMME: World Book Day is an opportunity to celebrate the unending power of books. Although books should be celebrated every day, not just on World Book Day, the worldwide focus allows us all to come together and share our love for reading. By committing and encouraging everyone in academic arena to love reading, we can positively affect wellbeing, empathy, cultural capital, communication, and attainment of life chances. With the active involvement of all stakeholders viz. learners, scholar, teachers, enthusiasts, librarians and all those who feel motivated to work together in this occasion of world celebration of books, World Book and Copyright Day has become a platform to rally together. Thankfully, books and a love for reading can transcend the current situation, enabling us to visit new worlds, explore new places and experience new things. Books have always been a vehicle for this. Bearing in mind the context and objective, Nabagram ACK College had organized a special meeting of teacher and students in the college library to have some discussion about the importance of reading books in this age of cultural degradation. The whole programme was coordinated by librarian of Nabagram ACK College.

Outcomes: The programme was successful in making students realise the importance of reading books in this age of cultural degradation.
