Industry-Academia Interaction: Webinar on Scope & Future in the Gem & Jewellery Sector

On April 26, 2023, a significant webinar on the scope and future of the gem and jewellery sector was conducted via Google Meet, organized by the Career Development Counseling & Placement Cell of Sripat Singh College, SCBC College, RDK College, Nagar College, Lalgola College, Jalangi Mahavidyalaya, Muzaffar Ahmed Mahavidyalaya, and Nabagram ACK College. The event, held in association with the Gem & Jewellery Skill Council of India (GJSCI), commenced at 2:00 PM, aiming to bridge the gap between industry and academia by highlighting the sector's vast opportunities and future trends.

The webinar featured notable figures from both industry and academia, ensuring a comprehensive discourse on the subject. Mr. Rajeev Garg, the Executive Director and CEO of the GJSCI, graced the event, providing an insightful overview of the industry's current landscape and future potential. His presentation emphasized the critical role of skill development and the council's efforts in aligning educational initiatives with industry needs. Mr. Vinod Bamalwa, ICC Chairman of the Expert Committee on Jewellery & Lifestyle and a gemologist with an illustrious background, including an alumnus of Harvard Business School, shared his expert views on the evolving market dynamics and the importance of innovative practices in the gem and jewellery sector.

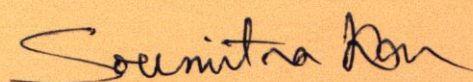

From the academic side, the event saw the participation of distinguished professors such as Prof. Asis Kumar Sen, TIC of Sripat Singh College, and Prof. Dr. Supam Mukherjee, TIC of SCBC College. They discussed the academic perspective on the industry, highlighting how institutions are gearing up to meet the industry's skill demands. Dr. Sakila Hoque, TIC of Muzaffar Ahmed Mahavidyalaya, and Prof. Arpita Jha, the Coordinator of the Career Development Counseling Cell at Lalgola College, elaborated on the initiatives taken by their respective colleges to foster industry-relevant skills among students. The discussions underscored the importance of academia in nurturing talent tailored to industry requirements.

The webinar, moderated by Mr. Shyam Sundar Sett from Sripat Singh College, facilitated an engaging exchange of ideas and insights. Mr. Bikash Das, an entrepreneur in the gem and jewellery sector, contributed practical insights into entrepreneurship and the business aspects of the industry. The event concluded with an interactive Q&A session, where students and participants had the opportunity to engage with the speakers, gaining clarity on various career paths and opportunities within the sector. The collaboration between industry and academia highlighted in this webinar underscored the importance of such interactions in preparing a skilled workforce, ready to meet the challenges and harness the opportunities in the gem and jewellery sector.

The successful organization of this webinar, supported by the Gem & Jewellery Skill Council of India, set a precedent for future industry-academia collaborations. It not only enlightened the participants about the sector's future but also showcased the potential for academic institutions to play a pivotal role in shaping industry-ready professionals. The initiative's success points towards a promising future for such collaborative efforts, ultimately benefiting the students, the industry, and the broader economy.
