Report on the Webinar on Intellectual Property Rights

On Thursday, February 16, 2023, a one-day webinar on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) was conducted by Nabagram Amar Chand Kundu College with great success. The event was organized to spread awareness and deepen understanding of IPR among students and professionals. The webinar featured Dr. D. P. Dutta as the keynote speaker, an esteemed expert in the field. A total of 42 students participated in the webinar, making it a well-attended and engaging session. Prof. Avijit Bhattacharya, Coordinator, IQAC at Nabagram Amar Chand Kundu College, anchored the program with poise and professionalism.

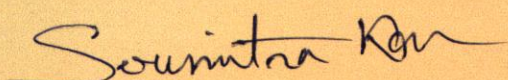

Dr. D. P. Dutta, with his extensive experience and knowledge in intellectual property, set the tone for the webinar. His keynote address covered the fundamentals of IPR, including its significance in the modern world, the various types of intellectual property, and the legal frameworks governing them. Dr. Dutta emphasized the importance of protecting intellectual property to foster innovation and creativity, which are crucial for economic growth and societal advancement. He also discussed the challenges and opportunities associated with IPR, particularly in the context of digital advancements and globalization.

The interactive nature of the webinar allowed students to engage directly with Dr. Dutta, asking questions and sharing their perspectives. This interaction highlighted the participants' keen interest and eagerness to understand the practical implications of IPR in their respective fields. Dr. Dutta's responses were detailed and insightful, providing clarity on complex issues and encouraging students to consider careers in intellectual property law and related areas. The discussion also touched on current trends and case studies, offering a real-world context to the theoretical knowledge presented.

The success of the webinar was evident from the positive feedback received from the participants. Many students expressed their appreciation for the opportunity to learn from a distinguished expert like Dr. Dutta. Prof. Avijit Bhattacharya ensured that the event was well-structured, with a seamless flow of presentations and discussions. Overall, the webinar not only enhanced the participants' understanding of intellectual property rights but also inspired them to explore this critical field further. The event concluded with a vote of thanks to Dr. Dutta for his invaluable contribution, to Prof. Bhattacharya for his excellent coordination, and to all the participants for their active involvement.

In conclusion, the one-day webinar on Intellectual Property Rights held on February 16, 2023, was a resounding success. The participation of 42 students, guided by the expertise of Dr. D. P. Dutta and anchored by Prof. Avijit Bhattacharya, made the event highly informative and impactful. The discussions during the webinar provided a comprehensive overview of IPR, its significance, and its practical applications. This event highlighted the importance of such educational initiatives in equipping students with the knowledge and skills needed to navigate the complex landscape of intellectual property in today's world.
