Report on Career Orientation Program for Second-Year Students

The Career Orientation Program for second-year students was held on Monday, 31 May 2021, from 3:00 pm to 4:30 pm via Google Meet. The event was a significant initiative aimed at guiding students in their preparation for government services. The session was organized by the Career Development Counselling Cell and featured prominent speakers Mr. Shyam Sundar Sett, the Coordinator of the Career Development Counselling Cell of Sripat Singh College, and Prof. Abhijit Bhattacharyya, Teacher-in-Charge of Nabagram Amar Chand Kundu College. Their insights and guidance provided valuable information to students aiming to pursue careers in government services.

The program began with a brief introduction by the host, who welcomed the students and the resource persons. Mr. Shyam Sundar Sett commenced the session by highlighting the importance of government jobs in India. He discussed the stability, job security, and prestige associated with government positions, which make them highly sought after by many young graduates. He further elaborated on the various sectors within the government where opportunities abound, including civil services, banking, defense, and public sector undertakings (PSUs). Mr. Sett emphasized the need for early preparation and strategic planning to succeed in these competitive examinations.

Prof. Abhijit Bhattacharyya followed with an in-depth discussion on the preparation strategies for government service exams. He focused on the critical areas of study, including general studies, quantitative aptitude, logical reasoning, and current affairs. Prof. Bhattacharyya stressed the importance of staying updated with current events and regularly practicing mock tests to enhance performance. He also shared tips on time management and the significance of a disciplined study routine. His practical advice and motivational words resonated well with the students, many of whom aspire to secure positions in the government sector.

The session concluded with a Q&A segment where students had the opportunity to interact with the speakers directly. Queries regarding exam patterns, recommended study materials, and effective preparation techniques were addressed comprehensively. Both Mr. Sett and Prof. Bhattacharya encouraged students to remain focused, dedicated, and consistent in their efforts. They also reminded students of the various resources available, such as online courses and coaching institutes, to aid in their preparation. The session ended on a positive note, with students expressing their gratitude for the valuable insights and guidance provided.

In summary, the Career Orientation Program was a well-organized and informative event that provided second-year students with essential guidance on preparing for government services. The expertise and advice shared by Mr. Shyam Sundar Sett and Prof. Avijit Bhattacharya were highly beneficial, equipping students with the knowledge and motivation needed to embark on their journey towards a successful career in the government sector. The event highlighted the importance of early preparation, strategic planning, and disciplined study habits, leaving a lasting impact on all attendees.
